“ Alliance for Community Trees- invigorating, rewarding - a place to share ideas and resources and a collective voice. ”

- Janette Monear
Executive Director
Texas Trees Foundation

With over 150 community-based member organizations, Alliance for Community Trees is the national network for organizations dedicated to improving communities through tree planting, preservation, care, and education. Together, the Alliance for Community Trees has planted and cared for 14.9 million trees with help from 4.3 million volunteers. Together, we are a collective voice for the essential value of trees in our cities. Together, we help people improve the environment and create cleaner air, greener streets, and healthier neighborhoods.

Nonprofit Membership provides:

- Updates about policy, research, and funding
- Biweekly newsletter
- Promotion of your organization on the national website
- Access to peer community leaders
- Eligibility for nonprofit grants

Associate Membership for non 501c3 entities provides the same benefits as above, except for nonprofit grants
