National NeighborWoods Month

undefined NaN, NaN NaN:NaN AM

(Fort Wayne - WANE) This month, cities across the country are becoming greener, and Fort Wayne is no exception. October is national Neighbor-Woods Month. It is a campaign to re-green America's cities, by educating communities about the importance of planting, protecting and maintaining trees. The city of Fort wayne sponsored a tree planting event, Saturday morning, at the corner of Edsall and McCormick Avenues, in Fort Wayne's Harvester neighborhood.
